OUTLINES.

Julge Lambert decides that George B. McClellan was legally elected mayor of New York at the election in 1905——Secretary Taft was busy yesterday winding up the affairs of his office of Secretary of War preparatory to General Wright taking possession today——Mrs. Cleveland and the two children who were with her at the time of the death of Mr. Cleveland, left Princeton yesterday for the family's summer home in New Hampshire where the other two children are. They will remain there until time for the schools to open——Princeton University will be presented with the death mask taken of Mr. Cleveland——The Hamburg-American liner Bosnia collides with a steamship off Lambert's Point. The latter is loaded with coal for the American fleet in the Pacific——At Port au Spain, Trinidad, there have been six new cases of the plague since the 21st of last month, three proving fatal.——Things are already beginning to get lively in Denver over the prospective fight on the injunction plank in the Democratic platform——The question of candidates for second place on the Democratic National ticket is still an open one. There are several men whom Mr. Bryan would be willing to have in second place, but they are not willing to accept the position. Chief among these is Judge Gray, whose headquarters as candidate for the nomination for President were opened yesterday——New York markets: Money on call easy at 1 1-4 to 2 per cent., ruling rate 1 1-2, closing bid 1 1-2, offered at 1 3-4, time loans dull and easy. Cotton quiet, middling uplands 11.50, middling gulf 11.75, futures closed steady. Flour quiet, but steady. Wheat easy, No. 2 red 95 1-2 to 96 1-2 elevator. Corn firm, No. 78 nominal elevator. Oats steady, mixed 54 to 55. Rosin quiet. Turpentine quiet.

The ocean breezes are delightful these hot evenings.

Did Mr. Bryan or anybody else expect the Chicago convention platform to be written to suit that gentleman?

How many ex-Confederate soldiers now hold office in this State? How many have held office in the last dozen years?

The Confederate veteran got the black eye at Charlotte, as he usually does when he comes in contact with the North Carolina politician.

Doesn't it begin to look like it is a fact that a man is disbarred from office by the Democratic party in this State if he is in the honorable class of ex-Confederate soldiers?

Mr. Bryan criticises the Republican party for letting Mr. Roosevelt draft its platform. Will he have much less to do with the shaping of the one to be adopted at Denver?

The Confederate veteran is told by his party that he is not fit to hold office, but he is expected to rally to the support o fthe "Younger Democracy" on election day or else be classed as an enemy to his party and to his State.

We do not suppose the delegates to the Democratic State Convention were any gladder at its adjournment than were the newspaper men who had to handle the accounts of its proceedings for the benefit of the papers' readers.

What is it about that man Berry of Pennsylvania that makes Mr. Bryan want him on the ticket? Does the fact that he was once elected treasurer of the State of Pennsylvania show that he is qualified to preside over the Senate or fill the office of President?

The only time when the old soldier is not in it with the people of our State is that when it would be of some real benefit to him to have his past services to the State substantially recognized. When it comes to this issue the latter day politician throws him in the shade.

The Charlotte Observer, which fought Mr. Kitchin's nomination, in its Sunday's issue comes to the front manfully with declaration of support of the Democratic candidate. That is the way for Democrats to do. All have their preferences as to the nominations, but all true Democrats bow to the will of the majority.

Many people think that oysters should not be eaten except in the "R" months. Those who have eaten the delicious fried oysters served at the Seashore Hotel will find that the "R" month idea is an entirely false one. They are as fine as any served in mid-winter, and with the other sea food put before Mr. Hinton's guests make a meal that cannot be surpassed anywhere.

COMING IN NUMBERS

HOTEL ACCOMMODATIONS

Many Inquiries Being Received—Interesting Discussions of Important Topics With the Trade. The Programme.

Inquiries for accommodations at the Seashore Hotel on Wrightsville Beach where the visitors are to gather indicate that the forthcoming annual convention of the Retail Hardware Dealers' Association of the Carolinas, which will begin today week and continue for three days, is going to be the most largely attended session of the organization ever held.

From all points of importance in the two States letters are received by Manager Hinton asking for reservation of rooms not only for members of the Association but from members of their families and friends who will be here for the great gathering. In addition to these will be a large number of manufacturers' agents and representatives who will have exhibits at the beach and will fraternize with the merchants of the Carolinas. The arrangements are in charge of an executive committee of local dealers composed of Messrs. Joseph N. Jacobi, chairman; B. R. Hoshall, secretary, and W. E. Perdew, and they are leaving no stone unturned to give the visitors a most cordial welcome.

The first session will be held at 10 A. M., with opening remarks by President W. N. Everett, of Rockingham, and an address of welcome by Mayor Springer. The response will be by E. W. Duvall, of Cheraw, S. C. Preceding short talks by members and others, Mr. W. M. Otis, of Columbia, will discuss the question of "How Best to Secure Legislation." This will be followed by the opening of the question box and a general reception during which the visitors will get acquainted and pass the remainder of the hour in pleasant social intercourse. The afternoon will be devoted to examining exhibits in the auditorium and in the evening Mr. R. D. Baldwin, of Fitchburg, Mass., advertising manager for the Simonds Mfg. Co., and a member of the Boston Ad. Men's Club, will discuss "Hardware Advertising."

Wednesday morning there will be a boat excursion on the Cape Fear and about the harbor of Wilmington, luncheon being served on the boat. In the afternoon another session will be held. Mr. T. W. Dixon, manager of the Southern Hardware Co., of Charlotte, will discuss "How to Get Best Results From Our Clerks," and Mr. W. P. Lewis, of the National Hardware Mutual Fire Insurance Co., will discuss "Hardware Mutual Fire Insurance." These will be followed by a general discussion in which all members will take part.

Thursday morning Mr. M. L. Coreay secretary of the National Association will discuss "Parcels Post and the Retailer." The election of officers and other business will be included in this session.

Not only will the hardware men be here for this meeting but there will be mill supply men and others in the allied branches.

EXCURSION JULY 4TH.

Junior Orders Preparing For Outing at Carolina Beach.

Much interest is being taken in the excursion which George Washington and Jeff Davis Councils Jr., O. U. A. M., will run to Carolina Beach on Saturday, July 4th. The Juniors compose one of the largest secret organizations in this city and their entertainments in the past have always been grand successes. The members have determined to make this excursion the premier of all and it is expected that one of the largest crowds gathered at Carolina Beach this season will be present.

Under the chairmanship of Mr. E. C. Woodberry an excellent committee is looking after the arrangements for the coming event. The services of Parker's String Band has been engaged and this is a guarantee of good music. This feature will doubtless make dancing delightful. All sorts of other amusements will be provided by the committee consisting of different kinds of races and other features. Everyone who attends the picnic is assured a most delightful time.

Mother and Daughter Laid to Rest.

The funeral over the remains of Mrs. Emma Piner and Mrs. Mary E. Herring, mother and daughter, who died within twenty-four hours of each other, this week, was conducted at the home No. 27 Kidder street yesterday morning, Rev. R. W. Hogue, pastor of St. James' Episcopal church, officiating. Many sympathizers, who were shocked at the sad coincidence, attended the services. The pall-bearers were: Messrs. T. J. Lewis, T. Matthews, Daniel Salter, J. A. Davis, M. Branch and Capt. A. W. Millinor.

HE ATTEMPTED SUICIDE

Unfortunate Young Man Made Bungling Effort to Cut His Throat—Detained at City Hall—Out of Job.

Believed to be despondent over the loss of his position, William M. Godwin, white, about 35 years of age, employed until recently on the yards of the Atlantic Coast Line in this city, yesterday afternoon attempted to commit suicide by cutting his throat, in the rear of Starkey's saloon, on Front street, opposite The Orton Hotel.

As a result of his rash act, Godwin inflicted an ugly wound on his neck and but for the interference of his brother, Mr. H. M. Godwin, who clerks in the saloon and Mr. Tom Croom, who was standing near, doubtless the unfortunate young man would have accomplished his purpose. The attempt was made with a pocket knife of medium size and the gash on the left side of his neck is in a dangerous place, it having bled profusely. Godwin had been drinking some and made some remark in regard to the loss of his position, immediately drawing his pocket knife and making two slashes at his neck, he cried out to those around him that he had determined to end his life.

Officer Leon George, who was in the vicinity of the saloon, was hurriedly called in and managed to obtain the knife without allowing him to do himself further damage. The patrol wagon in charge of Officer H. W. Howell was dispatched to the scene and with little difficulty he was carried to the City Hall and placed in confinement. On his person was found a few small coins and other things of little value. The officers removed his collar which was soaked in blood and he vehemently declared that regardless of all efforts to prevent it he was going to carry out his purpose of suicide. The wound had the appearance of being a serious one and Dr. C. T. Harper was called in to make an examination. He found that the wound was nothing of any consequence. However, the dullness of the weapon used, caused a rough looking place and some uneasiness as to its extent was felt by those who saw it until the examination was made by Dr. Harper.

It is understood that Godwin has been a resident of this city for a number of years. He is a married man and with his wife and one child resides at 1006 North Fourth street.

CAROLINA YACHT CLUB

Annual Regatta Promises to be Quite a Success on Saturday.

The annual Fourth of July regatta of the Carolina Yacht Club, which will be sailed over the regular course at Wrightsville Beach on Saturday, promises to attract unusual interest among friends of the captains of the fleet and the general public. Mr. W. D. MacMillan, Jr., chairman of the Regatta Committee, gives official notice that the start of the race will be at 12 noon and that all boats are required to report promptly at 11:30. All boats not previously officially measured will report at 11 o'clock for that purpose. Entries should be made on Friday, July 3rd, to the chairman of the committee. It is expected that there will be five or six yachts in the race and that the keenest but most friendly interest will be in evidence among the several crews.

CROWDS COMING JULY 4TH.

Atlantic Coast Line Announces Low Rates For the Holiday Occasion.

The Atlantic Coast Line is offering a very low rate to Wilmington for the Fourth of July on Saturday and numbers of visitors are expected in the city and on the beach for that day. The rate to Wilmington from Wilson and Goldsboro, good on regular trains, is $1.50 for the round trip, all tickets limited to date of sale. This gives an opportunity of spending a day at the seashore or witnessing two exciting games of baseball between Wilmington and Kinston.

In addition to this extremely low rate there are also reduced rates on other lines of the system and all told, it is expected that there will be many strangers in the city to enjoy the holiday in Wilmington.

Purchases the Oneida.

Local marine circles will be interested in the announcement from Baltimore that the Clyde Liner Oneida, formerly on the run to Wilmington, has been purchased by the Baltimore & Carolina steamship Company to take the place of the George Weems, which was recently burned off this coast, and that she will go into commission about the middle of July. The Oneida, which was formerly the British iron steamer El Callao, will be renamed for a member of the Williams family, largely interested in the company, and will be brought from Philadelphia down to Baltimore this week. She was built on the Clyde in 1885 and is 210 feet long, 31 feet beam and 12 feet depth of hold, registering 1,091 tons net.

CASE WITH THE JURY

Trial of Jesse Riggins and E. T. Cook Completed in Superior Court Yesterday.

NO AGREEMENT AS YET

Magistrate Joel Ray Arrested on Bench Warrant Charged With Malfeasance in Office—Clemency for Sam Glover.

The trial of Jesse Riggins and E. T. Cook, the two young white men of Delgado charged with complicity in the killing of old man Banks Rothwell, colored, at his home on the Carolina Beach road one morning before day last September, the particulars of which were given in yesterday's paper in connection with the opening of the hearing, was concluded in the Superior Court yesterday afternoon shortly before 3 o'clock and the fate of the two prisoners is now with the jury which is out all night in the Court House unable to agree upon a verdict.

The State concluded with its testimony yesterday morning and then the two defendants themselves and a number of character witnesses went on the stand in their behalf. Judge Peebles completed a very able charge to the jury shortly before 3 P. M. and the twelve men retired with the issue joined between the State and the defendants. A rather sensational turn was given to the proceedings early in the afternoon when Magistrate Joel Ray, of Delgado, who issued the warrant with which the young men were armed when they went to arrest the old man, was arrested on a bench warrant charging him with malfeasance in office. He was required to give $200 bond for his appearance at the next term of Superior Court.

The State introduced first yesterday morning Constable W. B. Savage, who was active in assisting the coroner's jury with its investigation before the identity of the parties was discovered and who ran the tracks found about the house next morning with the county bloodhounds. Constable Savage also established the fact that Cook and Riggins were two of the three men who went to the house, called the old man out and took hold of him.

Both Riggins and Cook admitted on the stand that they were present at the Rothwell house and that Cook fired twice, but they did not believe that the shots he fired were the ones that killed the old man as L. M. Bryant, who has since fled the county, stepped from behind a tree and fired after Cook had fired. They stated that they had a warrant from Magistrate Ray and had gone very much against their will to serve the paper, Bryant volunteering to go along to show them the way. They called Rothwell out and told him they had a warrant for him. He resisted, drew a pistol and they fired on him. They both ran and Bryant stepped from behind a tree and fired as he was armed.

Messrs. E. C. Holt, J. Walter Williamson, J. A. Jordan and Walter Wood officials of the Delgado mill, testified as to the good character of the young men. Deputy Clerk of the Superior Court went on the stand to show that the records gave Joel Ray as one of the magistrates of the county. Mr. Ray testified as to having issued the warrant for Rothwell and having deputized the young men to serve the paper, Bryant being directed to go along to show them the way. Judge Peebles did not consider that the magistrate's conduct in this matter was proper and ordered him arrested as stated. He gave the bond immediately.

The argument to the jury was opened by Woodus Kellum, Esq., for the State. He charged that the whole affair was premeditated and that the defendants are now endeavoring to hide behind the shadow of the law. They had no authority to shoot and to wound and to kill. His prosecution was vigorous and unsparing.

Walter P. Gafford, Esq., followed in a splendid appeal for the prisoners, analyzing the evidence to show that nowhere was premeditation shown and arguing with force and logic that unless this premeditation is shown the defendants could not be found guilty of murder in the first degree. He also went on to show that the fatal shot could not have been fired by Cook and even if it was, he was fully justified, believing himself in jeopardy.

Solicitor Duffy closed the argument with an impassioned plea for the triumph of the law, regardless of the feeling for the young men at the bar. He was faithful and conscientious in presenting the case as it occurred to him and not once did he tread near the danger line of improper zeal. He was heard with visible effect on the jury.

Judge Peebles' charge immediately followed and the jury retired with the usual instructions in charge of Deputy Sheriff Cox. Judge Peebles remained in the city until 5 o'clock awaiting a verdict and gave orders that if an agreement was reached before 10:30 o'clock that he be telephoned at the Seashore Hotel in order that the jury might be relieved. There was no agreement, however, and the jury is still out this morning.

This morning the court will take up the capital case of Timothy Clemmons, a middle-aged white man of Delgado, charged with criminal assault upon a girl under 14 years of age at Delgado several weeks ago. A special venire of 150 has been summoned to report at 9 o'clock this morning from which a jury will be selected.

It is understood that an effort is being made to get a commutation of sentence in the case of Sam Glover, who was convicted of murder in the first degree last week. The jury is being asked to sign a petition asking for executive clemency, with what success has not been learned. L Clayton Grant and Jos. W. Little, Esqs., are the attorneys for the prisoners.

NOMINEE KITCHIN TALKS

In Happy Frame of Mind at Raleigh Yesterday—News From State Capital—Commissioner Young Bereaved.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Raleigh, N. C., June 30.—Congressman W. W. Kitchin, who won the Democratic nomination for Governor in such a sensational contest at Charlotte last week, arrived here tonight and was kept busy acknowledging congratulations and telling "how it happened." He talks confidently of the pending campaign and his ultimate election by increased majorities. He laughs at the idea of any danger whatever of any Republican gains in this State at the next election.

The listing of property and polls for taxation was completed in this State today, although a number of the counties may grant extensions of time for a week or two for the accommodation of citizens who have for one and another reason not listed as yet. It is understod that there is a marked increase in the number of polls listed, due largely to the fact that large numbers of those who failed to list last year have been prosecuted and fined in the courts. The totals have not been footed up yet but it is estimated that there will be very little difference in the property lists this year and last.

Col. F. A. Olds, the veteran newspaper correspondent of Raleigh, has gone to Beaufort to attend the presentation of the silver service to the cruiser North Carolina July 3rd, the sessions of the North Carolina Bar Association there the next four days and also to make the arrangements for the annual outing of the Raleigh Sunshiners of which he is the director.

Friends throughout the State will sympathize deeply with Hon. James R. Young, State Commissioner of Insurance, in the death of his mother, Mrs. P. W. Young, of Henderson, who died in Mr. Young's home here last night after a ten days' illness resulting from a fall. She was 74 years old, the relict of the late Dr. P. W. Young, and was a woman of splendid character and charming personality. The remains will be carried to Henderson for interment, the funeral being from the Presbyterian church there at 11 o'clock tomorrow.

It is a fact that is considered now with interest here that in 1894 in the Democratic convention Major H. A. London and Hon. C. F. Aycock were close opponents for the Democratic nomination for State Treasurer, Mr. Aycock winning out, however, he was defeated at the election by W. H. Worth, fusion candidate. Now at the 1908 convention Mr. Aycock and Major London were again the leading candidates for Corporation Commissioner, Mr. Aycock again taking the nomination over Major London.

At 9:30 o'clock tonight the marriage of Miss Susan Graham Clark, daughter of Chief Justice Walter Clark, and Mr. Joseph Ernest Erwin, secretary treasurer and manager of the Alpine Cotton Mills, Morganton, and former representative of his county in the Legislature, was celebrated in the First Baptist church, the service and attendant ceremonies being one of the prettiest seen here in a long while.

May be Wrong Covington.

Tom Covington, colored, who was arrested last Friday by Constable Savage and sent to jail to await the action of Fayetteville authorities, was tried yesterday by Justice Furlong on the charge of assault. After the trial he was told that Chief of Police Monaghan, of Fayetteville, wanted him, it being alleged that he was the man who formerly worked in the express office at that place and made an unceremonious disappearance, taking away $500 in money. Covington said that he knew the police had been hunting for him, but he was the wrong man; that the man wanted was John Covington, a relative of his, who came to Wilmington soon after the robbery was reported. He is still being held.

Kinston, N. C., June 30.—Two home runs by the local club, one of them with two men on bases, gave Kinston the game with the Wilmington Sailors today; score four to nothing. It was a fast and well-played game by both teams from beginning to end.

Sexton in the box for Kinston pitched a magnificent game. Only thirty men faced him in the nine innings and 13 of the strong Wilmington array were fanned out by his curves, seven of the first nine who faced him going out by this route. In addition he got two of the hits accredited to Kinston and fielded his position perfectly.

Wilmington all but saved itself a shut out in the ninth inning when Carneal led off with a two-base hit and McDonnell batting for Wysong made a neat single after Jayes had fanned, but Carneal was thrown out trying to score. Flynn followed this up with a hit to right but with two down, Hoey went out on a hot grounder to short.

The Sailors conclude the series here tomorrow and the odds are even as to which team will win. Tomorrow night the teams leave for Wilmington for games the remainder of the week, including a double-header on the Fourth of July.

The Game in Detail.

First Inning—Flynn and Hoey, first up for Wilmington fanned, and Kite was out short to first after three balls and a strike had been called. Kinston: Sullivan out to first unassisted; Ryan bunts safely; Dunn out, third to first, advancing Ryan to second; C. Fox out, liner to short.

Second Inning—Doak fanned but the catcher muffed and batter was safe on first; Smith sacrifices; Rath hits to second and Fox doubles unassisted. Kinston: McCorey fanned; Young drew a pass; Wooten fouled out but Buck is out, short to first.

Third Inning—Jayes, Carneal and Wysong fanned in succession with only three balls called on the three batters. Kinston: Sexton singles; Sullivan bunted down third base line; throws to second too late and Lyon running for Sexton is safe on second; Ryan flew out to centre; Dunn flies to left; C. Fox up and Lyon out trying to steal third.

Fourth Inning—Flynn out, pitcher to first; Hoey hits to left field and is safe on muff; Kite flew out to centre and Hoey is caught at second. Kinston: C. Fox, first up, hits over fence for home run; McCorey fans; Young flies out to second; Wooten hits to third and is safe on first; Wooten out trying to steal second.

Fifth Inning—Doak fans, catcher muffs ball but recovers himself in time to throw batter out at first; Smith walks but was caught on a base attempt on second; Rath out, second to first. Kinston: Buck out, third to first; Sexton hits safe and Lyon runs for him; Sullivan hits to short and is safe on error; Ryan flew out to centre; Ryan hits over the fence scoring Lyon, Sullivan and himself; C. Fox hits to third, who errs but Fox is later caught off first.

Sixth Inning—Carneal fanned; Jayes out, second to first; Wysong fans. Kinston: McCorey flew out to centre; Young singles to centre and steals second; Wooten drew a pass; Buck flew out to centre; Sexton fans.

Seventh Inning—Flynn out, pitcher to first; Hoey flew out to third; Kite strikes out. Kinston: Sullivan out, line drive to short; Ryan and Dunn flew out to right.

Eighth Inning—Doak flew out to centre; Smith fanned; Rath bunts and is safe on wild throw of third; tried to go on to third and was called out, bringing forth heated kicks from Wilmington all to no avail. Fox out, third to first; McCorey fouls out to third; Young flew to short.

Ninth Inning—Carneal first up gave Wilmington encouragement by smashing out a double to left field, but Jayes next up fanned and McDonnell batting for Wysong lost the effect of his single when Carneal made an attempt to score; Flynn followed this up with a single to right field and McDonnell went to third, but Hoey's best was a grounder to short and the game was

OUR FRIENDS, THE ENEMY.

"The State Republican executive committee is to meet in Greensboro, next week, to select the place and time for holding the State convention. A strongly endorsed invitation will be presented inviting the republicans to come to Charlotte. As The Chronicle has previously stated, Charlotte would give the Republican convention a cordial welcome. If the Republicans decide to come here they will find everything to their hand and they will never regret the choice." —Charlotte Chronicle.

No doubt the people of Charlotte will be successful in securing the Republican convention. We hope they will be so. The Republican convention will, of course, not be so largely attended as was that of the Democrats but the fact that Charlotte took such good care of the thousands who attended the latter, will be evidence to the Republicans that all who attend their meeting will be well taken care of.

The attendance on the Republican convention, as we say, will not be near so large as was that on the Democratic, but it will be no insignificant crowd. It will most probably be one of the largest gatherings the Republicans have held in this State in many years, as it will be one of the most important, for a great deal depends on the personnel of the ticket that party nominates. The Democrats may as well admit—for it is a fact which cannot truthfully be denied—that the Republican party in this State is stronger today than it has been since Vance was elected Governor in 1876. We do not call that of Russell in 1896 a Republican victory. Success then was secured only by alliance with the Populists. We are speaking of the Republican party and not of any combination against the Democratic party. The Republican party today in this State is very different from what it was a few years ago and it is day by day becoming a greater menace to Democratic supremacy in this State. The vote that party will poll next fall will be a great surprise to many Democrats. The time has passed when all that is necessary for the Democrats to carry the State is to hold the election and announce overwhelming victory of its party at the polls. Now an intelligent and resourceful opponent is to be met—an opponent who is gaining strength with each recurring election. The time has come when the Democratic party leaders must consult the wishes of the people, must bid for the support of the people instead of dictating to them how and for whom they shall vote. What we say may not suit some of the party leaders who wish to keep the people blinded as to true conditions, but it is a fact that North Carolina is every day becoming more and more debatable ground between the two great political parties. For this reason it behooves the Democratic leaders to be most careful in their treatment of the people and in the manner in which they attempt to conduct the affairs of the State. We believe the Republican State convention will, in the large number of persons in attendance and in the character and standing in business circles of those persons, together with the increased Republican vote next fall, prove the truth of our assertion, that the Republican party is no longer an insignificant factor in North Carolina politics. This is a fact which the Democrats had better face and prepare itself to meet, for by so doing is its greatest safety.

OUR EX-PRESIDENTS.

What shall we do with our ex-Presidents? is a question which has bothered many Americans who have had nothing greater to occupy their minds. We have no ex-President now, but there will be one after March 4 next and some people are at this early date worrying themselves as to what the country shall do with or for Mr. Roosevelt after that date. He has tried to settle the question as far as occupation is concerned by declaring that he will retire for a while and efface himself politically in the jungles of South Africa in a hunt after big game. The financial side of the question as far as our next "former President" is concerned has been settled by a New York publisher, who has offered Mr. Roosevelt one hundred thousand dollars for the manuscript of a book giving an account of his experiences as a hunter in South Africa. Therefore we think the question: "What shall we do with out ex-Presidents?" has been settled as to occupation and remuneration so far as the next one is concerned, and we hope that the question will be allowed to lie dormant until President ——— becomes an ex-President. The country is entitled to a rest on this matter for the next four years.

WHO WROTE IT?

"There is no office on earth within the gift of the people or the President which Mr. Watterson could accept, or the acceptance of which he would consider. When he makes up his mind that he wants to go to hell, he will cut his throat and go direct, not take a roundabout journey by way of one of the departments at Washington. To him office and officialism in all their forms are odious in the last degree; and next thereto the thing called 'big influence with the administration.' "—Louisville Courier Journal.

We have the curiosity to know whether the above was written by Mr. Henry Watterson or whether his devil took advantage of the Colonel being out of the office to slip the article in the editorial columns. It must have been snaked in while the Colonel was out in Lincoln hobnobbing with Colonel Bryan. We cannot think Mr. Watterson would have written anything of the sort.

CURRENT COMMENT.

—New Orleans is planning to exterminate rats by infecting a few with a fatal disease, in the hope that the disorder will be communicated to the many by association. Great expectations were cherished in regard to the outcome of similar experiments in Europe several years ago, but so disappointing have been the results that imitation hardly seems worth while. —New York Tribune.

—The action of the Georgia Democrats affords convincing proof of the cunning of Mr. Bryan. Mr. Bryan coveted the nomination. He knew that the Bryan enthusiasm in the South was as thin as it was wide. He demanded that the delegations be instructed. He conjured frightful apparitions of Wall Street corruptionists with shrewd hints that uninstructed delegates would "sell out." Mr. Bryan foresaw precisely the situation that has developed, the late dawning upon Democrats that the Bryan cause is hopeless. That is why the Georgians have refused to be accessory to party suicide. Mr. Bryan had the penetration to see that the absurdity of his nomination could not be hidden from his party until after the convention had adjourned and so, long ago, with admirable astuteness he pulled his wires to obtain an instructed majority, a fettered and gagged majority in the convention, that would reduce the convention, a body designed to plan for party success, to a condition of mental and moral helplessness.—News and Courier.

—The nomination of Mr. Taft and his attendance upon the Yale commencement as a classman of '78 are related circumstances which naturally call attention to the fact that the famous institution at New Haven, although much older than the republic, has never yet had a son in the presidential office. Harvard, its traditional rival, supplied the two Adamses and Roosevelt. Although some of the greatest Presidents never had the advantage of college training Yale's zero record is rather remarkable. In the South William and Mary College, Virginia's venerable institution, gave Jefferson, Monroe and Tyler, and the University of North Carolina (class of 1818) gave Polk. Madison, third of the Virginians, was a Princeton man. Coming down to the year 1908 we find Mr. Taft's probable opponent a graduate (1881) of Illinois College and a student for two years thereafter at Union College of Law, Chicago-Yale, delighted with its first opportunity of the kind and ever rich in enthusiasm, nearly split its throat last week rooting for Taft.—Charlotte Observer.

—It seems to be the consensus of opinion that the election of Governor Malcolm R. Patterson over ex-Senator Edward W. Carmack in the recently hotly fought gubernatorial contest in Tennessee was another triumph of that conservatism over radicalism which lately found its expression in another Southern State in the turning down of Hoke Smith. The principal issue between the candidates was as to the regulation of the liquor traffic; Carmack ran upon a State-wide prohibition platform; Patterson stood for the retention of the present local option system that prevails in Tennessee. The campaign was exciting and was almost as indecent as that conducted between Hoke Smith and Clark Howell a couple of years ago. The ballots showed a majority of about 9,000 in favor of Patterson and local option. It is probable, however, that the well-understood fact that Carmack was really after the governorship only as a stepping stone to his return to the United States Senate was not without its influence in the result. Carmack is one of the ablest men in the South and his retirement from the Senate was a distinct loss to the party he represented. It is a pity that Tennessee can not hit upon some plan, satisfactory to a majority of the voters, for returning him to public life.—Columbia State.

—America is having a new sensation. In the two and a quarter centuries since William Penn sailed up the Delaware the tide of immigration had been toward America and not away from it until 1908. This year a great many more European natives are leaving the United States than are coming here. It is a remarkable exodus. If it were to continue long it would produce a very decided change in the labor situation in this country. The United States is still largely an undeveloped land. We need all the labor we can get to make productive the vast resources which are yet scarcely touched. Hence the draining away of this very essential element to our country's welfare might cause the most profound apprehension, except that nobody believes it can continue. Labor is exactly like capital. It goes where it fares the best. In the past labor came here and became enriched at a more rapid rate than anywhere else on the globe. Foreign workmen coming to the United States were able in a few years to accumulate what in their old homes meant an independent livelihood. The financial stress last Autumn and the business depression this year have evidently induced many of these thrifty sons and daughters of the Old World to pack up their stores and go back with their savings to the lands where it will go farther than in America. But this flight eastward won't last long, because in a short time labor will discover, as capital is all the time finding out, that there is no other place where it can earn so much as right here. Then the great tide of immigration will again set in toward our shores as strong as ever.—Philadelphia Press.

—She—Do you think it helps a play to have a moral? He—Not half so much as an immoral.—Philadelphia Inquirer.

—Jeweler—Shall I engrave the bride's initials on the inside? Fiance—Better say, "For my best beloved" —Fliegende Blatter.

—Wallie—Next to a woman, what is the most nervous thing you know? Willie (ungrammatically)—Me—next to a woman.—Somerville Journal.

—"The corporation has resolved at last to lay out a park for the benefit of the poor." "Have the preparations begun?" "Rather! All the "Keep Off Grass' boards have arrived already." —Tit-Bits.

—Bill—I see in a favorable wind a fox can scent a man at a distance of one-quarter of a mile. Jill—Of course, he could scent him farther if the man happened to be in an automobile.—Yonkers Statesman.

—Wink—He didn't use to dodge his rich relatives, but he does now. Bink—Does eh? And as poor as he is? Wink—Sure! All his rich relatives have bought automobiles.—Chicago Daily News.

—"The Swelltons seem to keep up an imposing establishment," remarked the canned goods drummer. "You bet they do," replied the grocery man, with a sigh long drawn out, "and I'm one of the fellows they impose on."—Chicago Daily News.

—Boston Bill—I'm getting weary of this blase, nomadic, peripatetic existence, aren't you pal? Omaha Red (after recovering)—Why—e-r, yer see, Bill, it never struck me in dat light before. Is it really as bad as all dat? —Puck.

—The Bridegroom (on the return from the honeymoon)—Hello! What's this? All the bills for your trousseau! Why, I thought your father paid these. Bride—It is customary, dear. But he thought you would rather do it than give him the humiliation of borrowing the money from you.—Life.

—Mamma, is the old black hen going to be sent away for the summer?" "No Tommy, but why do you ask?" "Well, I heard papa tell the new governess that he would take her out riding when he sent the old hen away for the summer."—Harper's Weekly.

—"Confound it," cried the angry husband, "any old thing appeals to you if it's only cheap!" His bargain-hunting wife grimly smiled. "Don't forget," she sarcastictly remarked, "that you yourself are one of my characteristic investments."—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

—"What does you reckon yer'll like ter do w'en you gits ter glory?" "Well," said Brother Dickey, "since you put de question ter me, I'll make answer ter it: Ef dey lets me have my way, I'll des lay back on a white cloud, an' let de heavenly winds blow me fum star to star."—Atlanta Constitution.

—"What brought you here, my poor man?" inquired the prison visitor. "Well, lady," replied the prisoner, "I guess my trouble started in attendin' too many weddin's." "Ah! You learned to drink there, or steal, perhaps?" "No, lady; I was always the bridegroom."—Tit-Bits.

MARRIED IN LAURINBURG

Miss Mary McNair Bride of Mr. James Archibald Jones.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Laurinburg, N. C., June 27.—The marriage of Miss Mary McNair to Mr. James Archibald Jones, which occurred in the Presbyterian Church on last Wednesday evening, was pronounced one of the most beautiful witnessed here in years. The lovely church was decorated with palms, feathery ferns and smilax arranged on a back ground of fleecy tarleton, the white and green effects being so blended as to furnish a most artistic beauty. At 7:30 the vocal solo, "Because" rendered most beautifully by Miss Patti James opened the wedding service.

Mrs. Charles W. Regan presided at the organ with her accustomed skill, the marches used being "Gondolin" and Mendelssohn's. The attendants entered in pairs, one in each aisle. The first group of lady attendants, Misses Lila McLean, Margaret Baldwin, Harriet McLean, Naomi Lytch, Mattie McEachin, and Emma Ritch took their position in line just inside the chancel and before a great Gothic arch of white and emerald.

Next came the ushers, Messrs. John Phillips, H. B. Adams, Jr., John McIlwenen, William Jones, Angus Lytch and Dr. DeWitt McIver and formed on either side of the chancel. The second groupe of lady attendants, Misses Patti James, Lillie Gill, Hallie Lytch, Bettie McDougall, Kate Blue and Annie Rose, alternating in pink and white costumes, entered one by one, down the principal aisles, forming a lovely group just in front of the ushers.

Mr. George F. Avinger was best man and Miss Ina McNair, sister of the bride was maid of honor. The bride entered on the arm of her father, who gave her away. Little Miss Sarah Pate was ring bearer and the ribbon bearers were John F. McNair, Jr., Mary Northrop Fletcher, Hervey Evans and Irene Prince. The ceremony was impressively performed by Dr. J. M. Rose. The bride is the daughter of Mr. John F. McNair, who is widely known in financial and social circles. She is a charming woman, admired by a host of friends for her pronounced good qualities. The groom is a successful business man in manufacturing and other enterprises and has many strong friends. Mr. and Mrs. Jones immediately after the ceremony took the train for Washington and other northern points. They will be at home in Laurinburg to friends after the tenth of next month

CAPT. J. P. C. MORRIS RETURNS.

After Residence of Over Twenty Years in Charlotte Comes Back.

The Charlotte Chronicle of a recent date has the following:

"Hih friends will be interested to know that Capt. J. P. C. Morris will return within a few days to his former home in Wilmington, where he will reside permanently. Captain Morris has a whole host of friends in Charlotte, who will regret his departure. He will be accompanied by his attractive little daughter, Miss Lilly May Morris. In going back to the city by the sea, Captain Morris will engage as shipping master, a position for which he is eminently qualified. He is a fine and accurate accountant, his ability in such a way having been many times signally recognized.

"Captain Morris is a veteran of the war between the States and was distinctively known in his service. He was uder the command of several of the brave leaders in the battles of that period. At Malvern Hill he was wounded, and his body today bears seven scars of conflict. He has lived in Charlotte for something more than 20 years, having been last associated with the City of Charlotte in handling the taxes here. Captain Morris enjoys the distinction of having been one of the brave and fearless men of the Confederacy. He had shot from under him, while doing orderly service, two horses, one of which he had nurtured and reared from a colt."

THEY PLAY FAST BALL

Colored Teams From Wilmington and Newbern at New League Park.

A fast and very exciting game of baseball was played yesterday afternoon at the new League Park by the Wilmington Crescents and Royal Giants of Newbern, colored teams who know the game and serve it up red hot to the grandstand and bleachers. The score yesterday afternoon was won by Wilmington in the ninth inning; score two to one. The same teams play again this afternoon and something fast and exciting may be expected. The score yesterday:

Wilmington .. ..001 000 001—2 8 1

New Tobacco and Cigar Store.

Princess street now boasts of another new and up-to-date cigar and tobacco store, combining with it pool room and soda fountain along the lines successfully carried on elsewhere. Reference is made to Candycapps, which is now under the sole ownership of Mr. D. L. T. Capps at 123 Princess street and which will be made up-to-date in every respect as a tobacco and cigar store. The change from confectionery and fruits went into effect yesterday and Mr. Capps respectfully solicits a share of the public patronage.

Club Shoot This Afternoon.

Members of the Wilmington Gun Club are reminded that the regular weekly shoot will take place this afternoon at the traps near Delgado. The traps have been placed in first-class condition and some fine scores are being made. The Inter-State tournament takes place here this month and it is hoped that all the members of the Club will prepare themselves to take part in this big meet . The date of the weekly shoot is changed in order not to conflict with the baseball the last three afternoons in the week.

Goldsboro Players Ugly.

Wilson, N. C., June 30.—From the opening of the game this afternoon the kickers from Goldsboro began to play the same tactics that the attempted in Raleigh and in the ninth inning Adams, who had been chronic from the first, could control himself no longer and cursed the umpire and struck at him. For this infraction he was fined $15, put out of the game and it is possible will be suspended. As the park is within the jurisdiction of the police a warrant has been issued for Adams.

"Bull" Thompson was at his best this afternoon and the visitors saw their finish when he went in the box. He allowed only two hits. Score:

Wilson .....021 000 00*—3 5 1

Eleven Inning Game.

Newbern, N. C., June 30.—Raleigh beat Newbern in an eleven inning game today. The defeat was largely due to an error of short stop. There were many brilliant plays and Clunn's work in the box, but for the last two and one-half innings, was wonderful. The score:

Newbern ....001 020 011 00—5 11 7
Raleigh .....003 010 001 03—8 10 5

Batteries—Warwick, Clunn and Smith; Lee and Hartman.

FOURTH OF JULY CROWDS

Tidewater Power Company Secures Extra Equipment for Traffic.

Anticipating a very heavy travel for the Fourth of July attractions at the beach and to the baseball park where two games will be played morning and afternoon, the Tidewater Power Company has arranged with the Atlantic Coast Line for five flat cars capable of handling about 600 people with safety and a locomotive. The cars have been equipped with comfortable seats carrying out an idea suggested by a recent experiment in Vancouver, British Columbia, and it is expected that the crowds will be handled with ease and dispatch. These cars will be used from Tenth and Princess streets leaving at 9:10, 9:40 and 10:10 A. M. and 3:10, 3:40 and 4:10 P. M. Both express and local trains from the beach will stop at the ground as usual. These trains leaving for the beach, however, will not stop at the ball grounds. The company regrets that it is not better equipped to give more satisfactory service to the ball grounds but will have everything they have rolling on the Fourth. Some changes have been made at the baseball park to prevent a recurrence of last Saturday's experience and it is hoped that the public will co-operate to make the present arrangement a success if it is possible. Tickets singly, by twos or in greater number may be purchased on the cars on the way out and at convenient places down town where baseball tickets are sold. The management realizes that the arrangement last Saturday was beastly, but with the co-operation of the people at the park the last three days of this week they hope to handle the crowds safely and conveniently.

BRIGADE ENCAMPMENT

Both Companies Will Leave Shortly For Southport for Outing.

The annual encampment of both the Senior and Junior companies of the Boys' Brigade are preparing for their annual encampment, which will begin on the battery at Southport July 11th and continue for one week. General orders will shortly be issued by Colonel Taylor, commanding the Brigade, and active preparations will then be commenced. The Junior command will be in charge of Captain C. C. Louglin and the Seniors in charge of Captain Wilbur Dosher. The two companies expect to carry between 65 and 70 men into camp. Employers of the young men composing these two splendid organizations are expected to arrange so that the members may be "off" for this week. The encampments always result in better service to the employer the year through and an improvement of the boys morally and physically. No impediment should be pleased in the way.

SAD DEATH AT BURGAW.

Little Mary Ann Collins Succumbs to Fever After Brief Illness.

The many Wilmington friends of Mr. and Mrs. George W. Collins, of Burgaw, will learn with the deepest regret of the death of their little daughter, Mary Ann, which occurred Monday night after an illness of ten days with malarial fever. The child was loved and admired by all with whom it was acquainted and its death which came unexpectedly, created the deepest sorrow for the bereaved parents. The funeral was held yesterday afternoon from the Methodist church, conducted by Rev. Mr. Parker, assisted by Rev. Mr. Sykes, pastor of the Burgaw Baptist Church. A beautiful tribute was paid the little child's memory in the prety decorations in the church and eight little girls dressed in white were the floral bearers. The choir, composed of Mrs. J. B. Moore, Mrs. J. D. Glenn, Mr. J. H. Moore and Mr. Davis Glenn, rendered several impressive selections during the services Mrs. W. J. Collins and Mr. H. W. Collins, of Wilmington, attended the funeral.

FIRE UNDERWRITERS.

Annual Convention to Be Held in Rocky Mount Next Week.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Rocky Mount, N. C., June 29.—The 11th annual convention of the North Carolina Fire Underwriters' Association will be held in Rocky Mount on July 8th, 1908. From present indications and owing to the importance of subjects to be discussed, this promises to be one of the largest meetings in the history of the Association. The local agents of Rocky Mount have extended a cordial invitation to all North Carolina local agents and to the special agents representing companies doing business in the State, and have arranged an interesting programme for their entertainment and pleasure. The last annual meeting was held in July, 1907, in Asheville, and Rocky Mount is indeed fortunate in securing a convention of such representative business men as those who are engaged in the fire insurance business in North Carolina.

WARRANT AFTER MARRIAGE.

Bride and Groom Have Trouble in Effort to Move Furniture.

Within less than an hour after Jas. McDaniels and Lizzie McArthur, a colored couple, were married by Justice Bornemann yesterday afternoon, the bride returned to the magistrate's office on Princess street and obtained a civil summons against her mother who had refused to allow her to take her furniture from the home. The legal papers were served by Officer Piver and when the bride's mother saw the approaching officer she began to throw the things into the street. They had little trouble in obtaining the desired articles, however, some of them were slightly injured by the abuse. The trouble was brought on by the objection of the bride's mother to her marriage.

Tax Books are Closed.

Yesterday was the last day to list county and city taxes and property owners thronged the office during the day, the rush lasting until the doors were closed yesterday afternoon at 5 o'clock. The books were kept in the basement of the Court House this year in order to mitigate the confusion which has existed heretofore when two places were had. The listers have been exceedingly busy since the books were opened.

COMMISSIONERS IN SESSION.

Applications for Renewals For Liquor License Are Passed Upon.

The Board of County Commissioners was in session a little more than an hour yesterday afternoon passing upon applications for renewal of liquor licenses as they came over from the Board of Aldermen. Commissioner Robertson presided in the absence of Chairman McEachern and Messrs. Vollers, Divine and Alexander were present. All except two of the licenses as they came over from the Aldermen were approved and these two were referred back to the applicants to be put in due form, the chairman being authorized to grant them when the defects are remedied. The offices of the Register of Deeds and Sheriff were busy during the afternoon and evening, receiving the $200 paid by each dealer and granting the license so that there would be no delay in opening this morning, July 1st.

Wilmington Relatives Bereaved.

The sad intelligence of the death of Mrs. Joseph H. Allen, mother of Mrs. F. H. Fechtig, Mrs. D. H. Penton and Messrs. F. T. and M. F. Allen, of this city, was received in Wilmington Monday night, her death occurring at the family home place in Harris county, Virginia. She passed away after an illness of some time. Mrs. Allen was a woman of sterling character and the bereaved ones have the tenderest sympathy of many friends here.

Mid-week Dance Tonight.

The mid-week dance will be given at Lumina tonight. The decorations that were used at the souvenir dance Monday night, and which were so much admired, have been left up and will be used to decorate the ball room tonight. The decorations are very effective and add very much to the appearance of the ball room.

A Californian's Luck.

"The luckiest day of my life was when I bought a box of Bucklen's Arnica Salve;" writes Charles F. Budahn, of Tracy, California. WARM WIRELETS.

One negro was shot and seriously wounded late last afternoon as a result of a mutiny among the negro convicts at a convict camp 20 miles from Atlanta on the Roswell Road. The trouble started when the negroes in the camp refused to go to work today.

At Port of Spain, since June 21 there have been six new cases of plague, three of them terminating fatally. Four cases are now under treatment, three of them improving. The special commission which was appointed to combat the disease is still engaged in taking active measures to that end. The first white person to be attacked by the disease was a young girl.

Bert M. Fernald, of Portland, was nominated by acclamation for Governor of Maine by the Republican State convention last night, just when it had begun to look as if the convention would outlast the daylight. It was William T. Haines, of Waterville, Mr. Fernald's opponent for the nomination, who expedited matters. When the speech making had been concluded and the convention was preparing to ballot, Mr. Haines moved that the voting be dispensed with and that Mr. Fernald's nomination be made unanimous.

MRS CLEVELAND AND CHILDREN

To Spend the Summer in New Hampshire—Death Mask of Cleveland.
(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Princeton, N. J., June 30.—Mrs. Frances Cleveland left today for Tamworth, N. H., where she will join her children Marion and Francis, who remained there during the funeral of their father here last Friday. With Mrs. Cleveland were her two children, Esther and Richard, who attended the funeral; Miss Bryant, a daughter of Dr. Joseph T. Bryant, the family physician, and President John H. Finley, of the College of the City of New York. Mr. Finley's farm adjoins the Cleveland residence at Tamworth.

Mrs. Cleveland said that she preferred to make no announcements at present, but that she would return to Princeton with her children in time for the opening of school in September. The final disposition of the death mask which was made by Edward Wilson, of Princeton University, at the time of Mr. Cleveland's death has been a source of much inquiry in Princeton, but it is declared on good authority that Princeton University will be presented with it.

—"But, Mr. President," protested his adviser, "the Constitution in its very inception specifically provided that certain prerogatives should lie with the legislative arm." "Did, eh?" answered the executive, with an air of doubt. "But you must remember," he added brightening up, "that the Constitution was young and inexperienced then."—Philadelphia Ledger.

THE C. W. POLVOGT COMPANY.

—Douglas, Ga., June 29.—Dennis Paulk, Jr., who is highly connected in Coffee and Berien counties is in jail here while his wife lies fatally wounded by her husband. Paulk came home Saturday night under the influence of drink and aimed his gun at a negro servant. His wife said "Dennis, don't do that," when he turned the gun on her, saying, "I will kill you then," and fired the whole load of shot into her left breast. Paulk, eight years ago, killed a friend named Floyd and was later pardoned out of the penitentiary. He is believed to be crazy.

—Charlotte Observer: An old gentleman whose name could not be learned despite persistent efforts to that end, suffered a stroke of paralysis in his rooms at the Queen City Hotel last night and was taken in charge by City Physician F. O. Hawley, who had him removed to the Presbyterian Hospital. He is in a very precarious condition. On his watch fob is the name "S. B. Simon, 14th street, Gulfport, Miss." It seems from some papers in his possession that he had had some kind of a legal settlement in Anderson, S. C. It was also discovered that he was a tailor by trade.

—Winston-Salem, June 29.—Bishop Edward Rondthaler, head of the Moravian Church of the Southern Province, has resigned as pastor of the Home Moravian church and will be succeeded by Rev. J. K. Pfohl, pasor of the Christ Moravian church of this city. A successor to Mr. Pfohl has not yet been selected. Bishop Rondthaler has served the Home church as pastor for the past thirty years and is one of the most beloved men in the city. He gives up his pastoral duties in order to devote more time to general work in the city, in the province and in the State at large, as well as to represent the province in its relations to the church in other parts of the world.

—Lexington, June 29.—Lindsay Hepler, a young white man 22 years of age, was bound over to Superior Court this morning upon the charge of housebreaking and was released under a $200 bond. Hepler came very near having to face a more serious charge than simple housebreaking. Sunday morning he was found in a room at Mr. J. Tilden Hedrick's asleep on a soft, having forced an entrance into the house during the night. The young man appeared to be intoxicated and seemed not to have entered the house with burglarious intent. He claimed to know nothing of what happened during the previous night, saying that the last he knew he was at an ice cream supper. Owing to the circumstances he was not charged with burglary. The preliminary trial was had this morning before Mayor John H. Moyer.

—Charlotte Observer: "I die as a soldier should die, with my face to the foe," said General W. P. Roberts, of Gatesville, defeated candidate for Secretary of State, to an Observer man yesterday. The general regretted his failure to secure the office for which he asked, but he was game to the core. General Roberts' speech made a profound impression on the convention yesterday and his patriotic utterance in which he bowed to the will of the majority was enthusiastically applauded. The general's military career in the Army of Northern Virginia was a brilliant one. At the age of 23, without any previous military experience, he was made a brigadier general by Robert E. Lee, because he was "the best colonel of a cavalry corps in the Army of Northern Virginia and never was stampeded on the field of battle."

—Charlotte Chronicle: By reason of a graceful act on the part of Ashley Horne, Mr. W. W. Kitchin is today the Democratic nominee to succeed Glenn, as Governor of North Carolina. His nomination came after a notably hard convention fight, in which brute passions were aroused. While there is an apparent acquiescence in the result of the convention, we are not going to say that harmony has been restored in the party ranks, or that the unity which should prevail will be in evidence. That would not be the truth. The Democrats will not be permitted to forget what they said of their respective candidates during the campaign. There are Democrats who will not want to be permitted to forget it. Mr. Kitchin's nomination was a clear victory of the east over the west, for the fight was made on purely sectional lines. The eastern people sent the largest delegation, every man in it a professional politician. They displayed superb generalship. At no move in the game did they make a blunder. It was simply a case of holding a grip on the throat until the victim ceased to struggle. The nomination of Mr. Kitchin has given the Republicans courage. They hope to nominate an opposing candidate who will defeat him, but that they cannot do. They cannot find the right man. They may make inroads upon the Democratic majority in the State, but they will never defeat the Democratic nominee for Governor, for, from the moment Kitchin's nomination was announced in the Democratic convention, it was Governor Kitchin. The east is, of course, solid for him and the west will remain loyal to the east, as it has ever been in the past. Every Democrat who took part in the township and county primaries and in the State convention, is under pledge to vote for Kitchin for Governor.

THE COTTON MARKET.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

New York, June 30.—The cotton market was rather steadier today but failed to hold all of an early gain, the close being steady at a decline of one point to an advance of 5 points, August being the only month to show a loss. Sales for the day were estimated at 85,000 bales.

The market opened steady at an advance of 2 to 5 points and during the early session sold up to a net gain of 7 to 9 ponits on better cables than expected and a bullish condition report published by a prominent trade paper, making the average condition of the crop 81.4 per cent. whereas the trade had been talking of a government report of from 83 to 84 per cent. Weather reports were generally favorable the weekly report of the weather bureau proved rather better than some had anticipated and during the afternoon the market reacted to just about the closing figures of last night following the publication of another private condition report showing an average of 85.3 per cent. The close was up from the lowest on renewed covering. No less than seven private condition reports have been issued in the effort to foreshadow the government's bureau which is to be published at noon tomorrow, showing an improvement for the month ranging from one to 4.4 per cent. A canvass of 78 members of the local trade indicated that on the average the Government report of about 83.5 per cent. is looked for. The official figures will compare with 79.7 last month, 72 per cent. last year, 83.3 per cent in 1906 and a ten year average of 81.8 per cent. Southern spot markets officially reported were unchanged to 1-2c lower.

Receipts today at the ports 11,312 bales against 8,447 last week and 1,999 last year. For the week 45,000 against 43,582 last week and 15,028 last year. Today's receipts at New Orleans 3,329 bales against 459 last year and at Houston 5,385 bales against 60 last year.

Spot quiet; midling uplands 11.50; middling gulf 11.75; sales 708 bales. Futures opened and closed steady.

NEW YORK STOCK MARKET.

(By Wire to the Morning Star)

New York, June 30.—There was a fair degree of activity during the first hour of the stock exchange session today. Apparently it took about that length of time to demonstrate to the satisfaction of the professional traders that there was nothing in the market. Their tentative operations largely ceased after that and the market lapsed into stagnation more profound than anything that has been witnessed this summer.

Much attention is given in the current discussion in the financial district to the alternative of wage reductions of rate advances which it is believed will be forced on the railroads by the shrinkage in their earning power. Additional reports of May net earnings made further exhibit of this shrinkage in the case of Canadian Pacific, Reading and Southern Railway. In the case of the last named the $1,198,440 decrease in gross earnings was exceeded by the cut in operating expenses by $27,693 which therefore went to a gain in net earnings over May 1907. This repeats the success of this company in preceeding months and makes it singular in that respect amongst the railroads thus far reporting net earnings for May.

The closing day of the fiscal year was the occasion of the 2 per cent. call loan rate. The day's price changes were mostly declines.

Bonds were steady. Total sales, par value, $1,783,000. United States bonds were unchanged or call. Total sales today were 180,900 shares.

BUG DEATH

One of the great growers of seed potatoes in Maine who has made a life study of Irish potatoes, has demonstrated beyond question that it is impossible to apply Paris Green to potato vines in any quantity without weakening the vitality of the tuber. Bug Death will not injure the plant but will stimulate its growth. It will not wash off, it is perfectly harmless to animals and people, and has a wonderful power to prevent blight, rust and those diseases so generally prevalent among melons and vegetables

SECRETARY TAFT VACATING OFFICE

Winding Up His Affairs as Secretary of The War Department.

POLITICAL CONFERENCE

Held Yesterday With Congressman Burton—Others of the Party to Meet at Hot Springs Next Week—Manager.

(By Wire to the Morning Star)

Washington, June 30.—"I'm in process of sloughing off my official robes." This was the laconic declaration of his condition given by Secretary William H. Taft this evening as he sat at his big flat-topped desk in his private office at the War Department. He had been working like a slave during the day in the disposition of more or less important departmental business. Throughout the day he was in consultation with General Wright, who is to be his successor as executive head of the War Department and with bureau chiefs of the department. Several important matters affecting the election situation in Panama, the Panama canal, the situation in Cuba and administrative details of War Department proper occupied his attention practically throughout the day.

The only real political conference he had during the day was with Representative Theodore E. Burton, of Cleveland, O., who presented his name to the Chicago convention for the Presidency. Mr. Burton discussed with the Secretary the details of the convention and the political situation as it has developed since the convention adjourned.

They devoted particular attention to the political conditions in Ohio, Mr. Taft's native State, concerning which he is especially solicitous.

At the conclusion of the conference Mr. Burton said that a number of questions were considered by Mr. Taft and himself concerning which he could not talk.. He said: "Mr. Vorys, who has been mentioned in connection with the National chairmanship of the Republican party will be identified, probably with the approaching National campaign in an important capacity, but as the situation is today he will not be the chairman of the committee. I have no information at this time on the National chairmanship question beyond that. I am quite certain, however, that all of the wrinkles which now seem to exist will be smoothed out in a few days."

Mr. Burton may go to Hot Springs for a brief sojourn about the time Secretary Taft and his family arrive there. The Secretary said today that he and Mrs. Taft and their son Charlie, would leave Washington next Friday afternoon at 4 o'clock for Hot Springs in a special car over the Chesapeake & Ohio Railway. He also announced that he had sent out notices today to the members of the subcommittee of the National committee requiring them to meet him at Hot Springs on July 9th, to determine the matter of the Republican National chairmanship. Concerning the chairmanship the Secretary said that he was absolutely without information that he could communicate to the public. Apparently the matter is as much in the air as it has been since the meeting of the sub-committee in Cincinnati on the 20th instant.

Mr. Taft said that he expected to have a talk with Arthur I. Vorys tomorrow, but that he did not expect to see Mr. Hitchcock until Thursday.

"I shal have plenty to occupy my time," said the Secretary, "even after I relinquish my duties at the War Department. I am regarding with some concern a great wooden box filled with letters which I shall have to sign. They are in response, for the most part, to letters and telegrams which I have received concerning my nomination."

A question which gave the Secretary some thought today was that relating to the ordering of United States troops to the Mexican border to insure the preservation of the neutrality laws . He explained that two troops of cavalry from Fort Clark and two other troops from the maneuvre camp at Leon Springs had been ordered to Del Rio, Texas, a few miles below Eagle Point. He expressed the hope that their services might not be needed in any serious way.

In connection with the administration of the War Department, as of other departments of the Government, Secretary Taft took occasion to pay to the bureau chiefs, the division chiefs and the clerks of the department, a high tribute to their ability and efficiency.

After a day in which the patient visibly lost strength and the end seemed near, Bishop Henry C. Potter, of the New York Protestant Episcopal diocese, was last night reported by his physicians to be resting somewhat more comfortably with symptoms rather more favorable than at any time during the past several hours.

THE POLITICANS ARE GATHERING

At Denver For The Contest Over The Democratic Ticket.

THE INJUNCTION PLANK

In the Platform to be the Greatest Subject of Contention—Strong Opposition to an Extreme Declaration on Subject

(By Wire to The Morning Star.)

Denver, Colo., June 30.—Although candidates for the nomination for Vice President on the Democratic ticket are numerous and despite the fact that their number is likely to be largely increased before a choice is actually made, it is the general opinion among such leaders of the party as are now here that if Judge Gray, of Delaware, will declare his willingness to accept the second place on the ticket he can have it. Josiah Marvel, of Wilmington, Delaware, the manager of the Gray Presidential campaign who arr ved in Denver tonight, will not, however, give his consent. He insists that the Delaware man is a candidate for first place, and when it has been settled that he cannot have first place, it will be ample time to place him in running for the secondary position, provided he cares to take it. Mr. Marvel denies, however, that Judge Gray will be satisfied with anything less than the head of the ticket.

It is well known that Mr. Bryan would be pleased to have Judge Gray for the Vice Presidential candidate, and the only thing that prevents the latter from becoming a leading candidate for that position is the simple but all powerful fact that he will not declare himself to be a candidate at all.

The Gray Presidential boom was formally launched today and headquarters were opened in the Savoy Hotel. During the early afternoon a corps of expert bill stickers were going about the hotels putting up lithographs of the Delaware candidate. No other pictures have been placed as yet, and the Gray men secured the most prominent places in the lobbies of all the leading hotels.

The Johnson headquarters will not be opened for several days and the date on which the Bryan banners will be thrown out has not yet been determined, but it will be on Saturday or Sunday after the arrival of the Nebraska delegation.

It is certain that there will be a strong fight in the committee on resolutions and possibly on the floor of the convention itself over the anti-injunction plank. Word has come indirectly from Lincoln that Mr. Bryan is in favor of a plank of somewhat radical nature, and it is certain that such men as Sullivan, national committeeman from Illinois, and Chairman Taggart, of the National committee, are strongly opposed to it.

Sullivan gave out a statement in which he favored "equal rights before the law" and used other expressions of a similar character which were construed to mean that he was opposed to a strong anti-injunction plank. Sullivan denies that he intended to convey the impression that he planned to fight the anti-injunction plank, but it is generally believed that he is against extreme language in this part of the resolution. It is well known that between Mr. Bryan and Mr. Sullivan and other influential members of the Illinois delegation no particular amount of love is lost, and reports have been circulated that if an anti-injunction plank is adopted more radical in its character than the Illinois people feel that they can approve, the state, when it comes to balloting for President, will break way from its Bryan instructions.

Sullivan denied this emphatically today. He said: "We are told to stick for Bryan, and we are going to stick. I do not believe that any platform fight can change our present programme. Illinois has no idea of breaking away from its instructions."

The forces opposed to a radical labor plank were made stronger today by the arrival of Charles G. Heifner, of Washington State, who has the proxy of John Y. Terry, the national committeeman from that State. Mr. Heifner announced emphatically that the Pacific coast, and particularly the State of Washington was opposed to the adoption of such a plank as was presented at Chicago by Samuel Gompers and other officials of the American Federation of Labor.

New England is said to be opposed to the plank and New Jersey and Pennsylvania are also accredited with pronounced antagonism to such a resolution. If the New York delegation and the Pacific coast delegations should take a determined stand against it, the fight would assume formidable proportions.

Adequate accommodations for the session of the committees on resolutions, credentials, permanent organization and rules not having been provided in the new auditorium, arrangements were made today to have these committees meet in the building of the fraternal union. That organization today proferred the use of the rooms to the committee on arrangements and the tender was accepted.

MR. M'CLELLAN IS MAYOR

Judge Lambert After the Recount of Ballots Decides That McClellan Was Legally Elected—A Statement by Mayor.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

New York, June 30.—Mayor George B. McClellan's title to the office of mayor of New York city was made clear by the decision of Justice Lambert in the Supreme Court today when he ordered a jury to render a verdict that McClellan was duly elected Mayor in 1905. W. R. Hearst has been contesting the mayor's right to the office practically ever since the election and as a result of his charges of fraud in the original count of ballots the Legislature passed a law enabling a recount. Attorney General W. S. Jackson then instituted quo warranto proceedings on behalf of the people, in which both Mr. Hearst and Mr. McClellan were named a defendants. The recount left Mayor McClellan with a plurality of 2,965, whereupon Clarence J. Shearn, representing Mr. Jackson, alleged that the ballot boxes had been stuffed and requested the court to throw out the entire vote of 112 election districts and he charged that the ballots found in the boxes exceeded the number of registered voters. This, however, was based on an incorrect list of voters and when the correct list was produced today Mr. Shearn said that the registration was greater than the poll in every disputed district.

Justice Lambert declined to throw out the contested districts. Mr. Shearn then charged that the inspectors had registered an excess number of names, but said he could not prove repeating.

The justice then declared that the original count was quite as complete as the one made in court, and that the evidence showed no fraud as far as the election inspectors were concerned. He said that if legal voters could be disfranchised so readily as had been attempted in this case, this form of Government would not endure long. If the jury were to return a verdict against Mayor McClelland, Justice Lambert said, he would not allow it to stand and he ordered a verdict in favor of the mayor, which was rendered. The jurors were allowed $510 each, having set 51 days.

Mayor McClellan issued a statement in which after defining his attitude in regard to the recount, he stated that he had been forced to pay out $40,000 to defend his title, not including counsel fees which are still unpaid. The mayor directed attention to the fact that the "result of this enormous expense and this protracted litigation has been to increase my total vote and to diminish my official plurality by about 500 disputed ballots."

Mayor McClellan says that he has no regrets as to the course he pursued, and that he feels that the controversy will discourage the bringing of election contests of this sort in the future. He said that had he suspected that his election was the result of fraud he would have acted differently.

An Ocean Liner Fouls Another Steamship in Norfolk Harbor.

Norfolk, Va., June 30.—The Hamburg-American liner Bosnia, Captain Schmidt, heavily laden with freight taken on at Boston, Newport News and Norfolk for European ports, collided with the British steamer Glenfruin, Captain Robertson, while the latter was anchored today off Lambert's Point ready to sail, with coal for the American fleet in the Pacific. The Bosnia was passing out from Lambert's Point and the accident is attributed to the wind and heavy current. The Bosnia, apparently uninjured, proceeded and passed out the Virginia capes two hours later. The Glenfruin had one of her plates dented and deck damaged as a result of the impact. A survey will be held to ascertain whether the Glenfruin can proceed to sea without repairs.
